

Here is a recap of the meeting content.

- Each organization shared wins over the last quarter- there were many!
- A special thank you to Celine and the work the AG's office completed for the Human Trafficking summit!
- When you know of an upcoming training that would benefit our network please send information to Jessica Rohrs at the Iowa Victim Call Center: jessicar@familycrisiscenters.org there is a tab on the website for trainings. Go to the Iowa Victim Service Call center at: <http://www.survivorshelpline.org/trainings.php> if you are looking for current trainings to attend as well. The call center has agreed to house and handle all training opportunities thank you Jessica!
- Tracey Bramble from the Iowa DOT presented the website for resources for survivors in Iowa the website can be viewed at www.iowadot.gov/endslavery. Thank you Pat and Teresa this will be an added resource that will benefit many!
- The Attorney General's Office Crime Victim Assistance Division presented on benefits and compensations to victims of crime in Iowa. Iowa has an extensive and gracious CVAD program.
- Shannon Schott suggested to establish a Code of Conduct for collaborative members. Short discussion was had about the possibility of a code of conduct and/or a certification process for programs that assist survivors. This will be continued discussion at future meetings. Shannon will share the information she has from an organization in Colorado via e-mail.

PLEASE PLAN TO ATTEND The 3rd Qtr Collaborative Network Meeting on Tuesday, August 7, 2018 from 9am-12 pm in Ames, (exact location to be determined.) Our main presenter will be Virginia Bruner from the US Attorney's office. (Her bio is listed below.) If you have other agenda items please e-mail your ideas to me at: wingsofrefuge.ia@gmail.com

AUSA Virginia Bruner joined the Criminal Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office in September 2014. She focuses on white collar offenses occurring in and around the Southern District of Iowa. She also serves as the Human Trafficking and National Security/Anti-Terrorism Coordinator for the office. AUSA Bruner previously worked as a law clerk in the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland, as an associate at Covington & Burling LLP in Washington, D.C., and as an analyst for the Central Intelligence Agency. She attended New York University and the University of Virginia School of Law.

Here is a link to some great self training or staff sessions for you:

Brene Brown, the Power of Vulnerability

Brene Brown, Listening to Shame