Lila Mae's House

- A safe, supportive and caring environment.
- A non-judgmental environment.

- A healthy and normal home environment where survivors can rest, heal, recover and develop life skills to become empowered, independent, self-sufficient women.
- A place where staff are knowledgeable about human trafficking and the effect on victims.
- A place where women experience deep, profound care over a long period of time.
- A place where women are not "revictimized" by staff, other residents, types of therapy or services in center.
- A place to help empower women who have lost their voice and power and have acquired
  - Helplessness
  - Confusion
  - Chronic insecurity
- A place to help women who have been sex trafficked gain or regain
  - Voice and Dignity
  - Control and Power
  - Security
  - Ability to form meaningful relationships
- A 24-hour, 7 day a week
  - Accessible to community resources and services
  - Accessible to public transportation
  - Restful space
- A place of assistance with
  - Job training
  - Basic physical needs
  - Medical care from sensitive professionals who understand complex trauma
  - Legal needs
  - Basic life skills: communication, conflict resolution, anger management, understanding boundaries, understanding trafficking and trauma, making safe choices
  - Obtaining lost information: ID, Soc. Sec., birth certificate, etc.
  - Exercise; physical movement therapy
- Substance free
- A separate 501(c)(3) non-profit
- Supported by corporate, community, and individual donations and public funds.

- Target #: 7 women will live in house
- Staff include executive director, senior case manager, case manager, live-in house manager, volunteers, and professional discipline interns.