A ROTARY FORUM FOR THE BETTERMENT OF CENTRAL IOWA

Presented by the Greater Des Moines Rotary Multi-Club Committee
9th Annual Event bringing Rotarians, their guests, and interested citizens together for education and networking.

Putting an End to Human Trafficking

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC: a program focused on ending human trafficking throughout greater Des Moines while building momentum for community service.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2025

Hilton Garden Inn, 205 S. 64th Street, West Des Moines

4:30 p.m. Registration

Visit booths of non-profits who provide services that help fight human trafficking.

Heavy hors d'oeuvres and drinks will be served throughout the evening.

5 - 7:30 p.m. Program

Keynote Speaker: Dan Nash, Founder, Human Trafficking Training Center

Dan will lead a two-hour training session designed specifically for community citizens who want to better understand what we can do to better fight human trafficking. Dan will cover this and more:

- Myths about human trafficking and how it can endanger our children
- Where do victims come from and what vulnerabilities do we watch for?
- What are the indicators of trafficking and how do we really protect children?

Dan's training will be followed by a Q&A session.

7:30 p.m. Network with fellow Rotarians and guests

During networking, local non-profit agencies will be at tables sharing how Rotarians can get involved with this important issue.

Bring a guest and attend this Des Moines metro multi-club Rotary event!

Cost: $25/person

Rotary members – RSVP yourselves and your guests through your club.

Members of the public can register by visiting https://shorturl.at/bUWbw or scanning the QR code.

Both members and the public can donate using the same link.

This year, net proceeds will go to fund training for law enforcement officers and their partners in the prevention of human trafficking.

Civitas programming has donated more than $115,000 over the years to various nonprofits relative to each year's topic.

Please see reverse side for our sponsors for the event.
